FULL PAGE INSERT TO EXHIBIT B

The terms of the "oral contract" between Mr. Prutnik acting on behalf of the Prime Minister and Mr. Kiselev are straightforward. When the Prime Minister took office, he and Mr. Prutnik addressed issues confronting the Ukraine. One such issue was the relationship between the Ukraine and the United States. Mr. Prutnik subsequently brought this issue up with Mr. Kiselev, and discussed ways and means to improve relations. One strategy, which Messrs. Prutnik and Kiselev addressed, was the engaging of advisors in the U.S. to assist in conveying issues confronting the Ukraine to policy makers in the executive and Congressional branches of government. Subsequently, and as a result of these discussions, Mr. Kiselev interviewed Venable LLP and engaged them on his behalf to assist and advise with respect to improving the relationship. More specifically, Venable was to assist and advise and participate in meetings and communications with Members of Congress, the State Department, the White House, other Executive Branch agencies and private entities for the Prime Minister and/or his advisors and oversee the development of a communications strategy on their behalf. Again, Mr. Kiselev, is not compensated for this effort.
